

Object of the United National Campaign

When the guns fell silent after the painful battle from the aspect of the world began immediately to change. Forces that had not particularly asserted themselves during the long course of war, began again to assume their natural proportions.

The war had been waged with vigor, and during that period the church had given of her resources and trained leadership to everything that would promote the war. In the Patriotic Society, the Red Cross, the U. V. A., the church had assisted and the church received very little recognition.

After the close of the war the various Protestant organizations began to see how best they could revitalize the church. Each denomination came down to its own problems, which were spiritual, educational, missionary and financial. Each church decided upon a campaign.

It was then discovered that the objects of each denomination were the same, and so, following out the spirit of the age, a United National Campaign was proposed. This unity does not attempt to secularize the church, but to show to the world a united front. To show that the fundamental aims of the church are similar.

To carry out this campaign, conventions have been held in various "people's" centres and meetings will be held in hopes, at every local centre throughout Canada.

The committee is appealing to every minister of the co-operating denominations, with the hope that his brother ministers in quickening the religious life of the community. It is hoped that during the month of January many meetings will be held. If each minister would see each other and plan together they could arrange these meetings so much more might be accomplished for the Kingdom of our Master.

Want Artificial Cheer For Xmas

Anxious for Christmas cheer in the "good old days" numerous thencey correspondents are bombarding the government with telegrams and letters. They are not representative of any one province alone. They are from every part of the Dominion, and all alike ask for relaxation of the wartime orders—canceling prohibitions of transportation of intoxicating liquors. It is expected that the government, along with the war period, would have dispensed weeks ago. But days in the realization that the war has prolonged the life of the War Measures Act and the on-again-cancelled in force. Importation is still prohibited.

There is a cabinet wing which has for some time urged the abrogation of all the "wartime" prohibitions. They take the view that the orders—council were passed to meet special war conditions and that the most quickly special restrictions are removed the less likely is there to be unrest.

Pamphlets on Community Work

The Klaxi University of Canada prepared a series of three valuable booklets on Community work, for men in various educational communities. These were written by Professor Z. MacLean, of Quebec, and have been graciously appropriated by the community workers. The Department of Extension has a few extra left, and will gladly lend them to community workers who will find them full of valuable thought. The titles of these booklets show the wide range they cover. They are, "Building the Rural Community," "The Home, School and Church in Community Building," and "The State, Business Organization and Other Factors in Community Building." A few dozen copies only are available, and immediate application should be made.

Production Needed For Nation's Recovery

The report of the committee on post-war currency and foreign exchange has issued a white paper recommending certain measures for the restoration of the nation.

"Increased production, cessation of borrowing and desisting from the policy both by the government and its federal members of the nation are the first essentials of recovery," the report

Low Exchange in Britain's Favor

That the British government could restore the pound to its normal value at any time such a change is desired, the statement made by the financial men in the subject of common currency is the chief. But for the present the government has decided to leave the pound in Britain's favor and in authoritative circles a further fall to $3.50 as the U. V. A. generally anticipates. The reason for this belief is fairly obvious. Behind the withdrawal of government support which maintained the value of the pound during the war is the desire to restore, as far as possible the pre-war balance of trade. British goods imported into the United States and with the pound refused importers here are discouraged in buying anything not absolutely necessary, because of the premium demanded by exchange. With the pound so low in value British dealers hasten to pay their full bills, thus bringing money to the country.

Foreign nations are also anxious to buy British manufactured goods which is now being published in newspapers. We find ample proof, that Germany was responsible for the tragic turn of events in Russia. A paragraph from this diary says:

"By sending Lenin to Russia our government had, moreover, assumed a great responsibility. From a military point of view his journey was justified, for Russia had to be led in. But our government should have seen to it that he also was not involved in her fall."

May Re-open The Peace Treaty

Discussions seemed to point toward a re-opening of the peace treaty fight within a few weeks were voiced on the senate floor.

The symposium of talks that went into the record during the brief debate included opinions from virtually every member of the senate membership but they all struck a note of conciliation. Differing widely in their suggestions for a solution, they stood together on the general proposition that politics ought to be forgotten and that the senate, acting independent of party spirit, ought to do something promptly to establish peace.

In the compromise negotiations preceding private conferences the principal priority seemed to be among the Democrats.

The Prince of Wales, presiding at the annual dinner of the "Lancet-Victualist" Association, referred to his tour in America and raised a question by saying that he was happy to find himself back in London, where he had not even had to pretend to be a day.

Work Proceeding on Glass Plant Addition

Following closely on the heels of the cold snap, building activities were resumed on the large addition being built to the glass plant here. For the past few days the men are again busy work and are making good progress. If this mild spell continues on a few days more this part of the work will be well in hand. The steel workers now have the steel frame in place and are proceeding with the erecting. When this is complete, the roof will be put on and this in turn will permit of a continuance of the construction and installing of machinery, regardless of the weather.

Although the long cold snap and difficulty of getting material have added to the delay, it is expected that this new addition will be ready to put in operation early in the spring.

Borden to Resign As Prime Minister

With the prime minister, Sir Robert Borden, definitely decided to retire, the full meaning and import of his decision on fastened upon the political leaders, the question of a successor has quickly taken to the forefront as the paramount issue of the day.

Already it has developed that there is not a little difference of opinion as to how the new leader should be chosen. There is a group and it is well understood to be strongly represented in the cabinet, which believes that Sir Robert Borden should be deferred upon by the cabinet without reference to the parliamentary party. It appears to be the opinion of a party caucus will only give rise to schism, foster intrigues, and weaken the cohesive force of the national organization, and the therefore the best and wisest course is for Sir Robert Borden to advise the government-general as to his successor, and leave the matter settled without any further trouble.

Among those mentioned as a possible successor to Sir Robert Borden, the most prominent are Mr. Arthur Meighan and Hon. J. A. Calder.

Allies Will Accept U.S. Reservations

The Matin of Paris states that as a result of the conference which are being held in London by Premier Lloyd George and the United States government will be notified that in order to facilitate a compromise between the adverse parties, the allies are willing to accept, to as great an extent as possible, some of the reservations to the Versailles treaty made by the foreign relations committee. It is said that the allies will do everything possible to ensure that American may participate in future conferences.

There was a good attendance at the sale of war and afternoon tea given in the Presbyterian church last Tuesday afternoon, under the auspices of the Ladies' Aid of the church. The numerous and varied assortment of articles for sale were artistically arranged and made an excellent display. As the service was excellent, these in charge of the different departments had little difficulty in disposing of their goods. As a result, almost everything was sold and the ladies had a great success financially as well as from a social standpoint.

December the 17th, 1919, has come and gone and still the earth, the sun, the moon and the stars appear to be carrying on very much as usual, despite the fact that on that date great earthquakes were predicted to happen. The fact that, in anything, was brighter than usual, and that the world is slowly dying. The one claim that 2 presented a brilliant display about 9 o'clock in the morning. All men and women present had a rich color in all directions, but beyond these nothing out of the ordinary happened.

Chance to Ship Poultry to France

The directors of the National Agricultural Society of Prince Edward Island have been granted a substantial credit by the French government for the purpose of acquiring breeding poultry for the re-stocking of the liberated regions in France. This need was brought to the attention of the Prince Edward Island of Agriculture by Monsieur M. Chénaillet, of the Credit Foncier Franco-Canadien, the minister referring Monsieur Chénaillet to the National Council.

The council is now in communication with the agricultural societies of France and pending receipt of information as to the quantity of the different breeds required, the provincial representatives of the council are making a survey of their respective provinces in order to ascertain what stock may be available for export. The varieties favored by the French are the Barred Plymouth Rock, the White Wyandotte, the Rhode Island Red, and also Bronze Turkeys. An appeal is being made by the Provincial Department of Agriculture, agricultural colleges and the Canadian press to do all possible to assist in the acquiring of the necessary information to carry on negotiations with the Agricultural Society of France, and to the National Council.

E. C. Baker, Provincial Poultry Association, is looking after this matter. Further information may be secured from him.

Ship "Old Kentucky" To Cuban Ports

A news item from Louisville, Ky., says: "A way of apparently has been found for shippers caught with large stocks of liquor on hand by the war-time prohibition. A Canadian liquor steamer in Kentucky, estimated at 20,000 gallons in bonded warehouses largely in Cuban ports for storage and release, is to be sent to Cuba or shipment to other foreign countries.

The freedom of southern ports from their adequate storage facilities, including loading on board ship, and their clearance to the island, the number of steamships line operating to the island, were pointed to as evidence that with the aid of the United States shipping board co-operation the whisky stocks could be moved before January 16, the time when the United States Department has placed on shipment.

No Increase in Wheat Shipments

As far as can be gathered in Winnipeg no increase in the volume of wheat leaving Canada will be permitted—that is, in excess to cross the border. The only parties anxious to sell to Americans are farmers located in areas where crops were abundant this season, and broken who have considerable stocks of wheat. They have not been allowed to trade with them this year owing to the Wheat Board taking over all sales.

The Grain Growers' Association organizations in Saskatchewan and Manitoba are dead against it; the Saskatchewan Co-operative Elevator Company last week passed a resolution against the proposal. Millers are certainly against it, as are livestock breeders, and also farmers who live in poor crop districts and need seed supply for next spring.

British Export Trade Increasing

The official returns of the export trade of the United Kingdom for the first six months of the present year show very large increases in the exportation of British made goods to Sweden, Norway, Denmark, Netherlands, Belgium, France, Greece, Switzerland, Portugal, Spain, Russia and European Turkey. Exports of Italy, Germany, the United States, and other countries showed a decline. Exports to Germany for the period reported were $164,000,000. Consistent with these figures, the export of raw materials to other countries.

CHILDREN'S IDEAS

BEFORE the real issue of the season focuses our readers, Christmas will have come and gone, and in extending our Christmas greetings to you now our wish is that this will be the brightest, merriest and happiest Christmas you have ever had.

When all things are considered, and when we look back upon the event which Christmas day commemorates, it is almost impossible to think of one reason why we in this land and at this time, should not enter into the spirit of the season with joyous and grateful hearts and thus be able to make this a merry Christmas to every family.

At this time our minds naturally go back to the first Christmas day and in our mind's eye we gaze on the lowly manger in Bethlehem, the birth place of the child Jesus, the saviour of the world. In the picture we see friends gathering, bringing with them gifts of gold, frankincense and myrrh, and, naturally, our minds go out to our own children and those around us today. At this gift giving season, therefore, there are many lessons which we may learn from the wise men who took part in the first Christmas day, and apply them with profit to ourselves and those around us.

Because of the circumstances of the parents of the Christ child the gifts of gold had their significance, and, since "the poor we have with us always," gifts em-blematical of that gold should not be lost sight of today.
Frankincense and myrrh, when properly used, give out an agreeable, rich and spicy odor. Because of the surroundings in the humble birth chamber in Bethlehem, gifts of this nature were necessary to counteract other odors and to surround The Child with influences which would add to His comfort and development.

There never was a time when there was greater need for good, wholesome, helpful influence both in example and attractions, with which to surround our children, than right now and right here.

Let us, therefore, not lose sight of the frankincense and myrrh at this season, and in our gifts of gold let us remember the sentiment of the writer who said:

"Who gives himself with his alma feeds three, himself, his hungry neighbor and Me."
"O holy child of Bethlehem, Descend to us, we pray;
Cast out our sin and enter in.
Be born in us today.
We hear the Christmas angels,
The great glad tidings tell;
O come to us, abide with us,
Our Lord Emmanuel."

Complaints are heard on all sides about the nuisance and the damage being done to private property by cattle and horses which are allowed to run at large these days. Several report that the trees and shrubbery around their homes have been destroyed, and they consider it poor encouragement to beautify one's

To the Citizens of Redcliff and Surrounding District

LADIES AND GENTLEMEN:—

Permit me, at this time, to extend to you the Season's Greetings, and at the same time offer to you my sincere thanks for the very liberal manner in which you have supported me since I started in business. In my small way, four years ago—

It has been my policy to sell honest goods at fair prices; results have justified that policy. It is my intention, with your assistance, to "carry on" on the same line. I now take pleasure in submitting to you the following articles as being useful and seasonable gifts:—

would be a pleasure to wife or mother.
We have them here in good ware from eighteen dollars to seventy-five dollars.

FANCY GLASS-WARE.

In Table Sets, Fruit Sets, and Water Sets; also separate Tumblers from ten cents to thirty cents each.

THERMOS BOTTLE.

How about a Thermos Bottle to keep Dad's tea or coffee hot while he is working out in the cold weather?

ALUMINUM-WARE.

A piece of Aluminum-ware such as a Casseroles, Tea-pot, Percolator, or Preserving Kettle is a gift that is always appreciated.

A SLED

For the boy, we have them from one dollar and ten cents to two dollars and a quarter; or a Jack Knife. For another or a friend, a piece of Decorated China, such as Fruit Bowl, cup and Saucer, Bon-Bon Dish or anyone of a variety of other pieces.

COOKING RANGE OR HEATER.

What would be a real help—a first class Cooking Range or Heater—in any one of the three standard makes, McClary, Gurney Oxford or Moffat, all of which are absolutely up-to-date.
A number of these I bought two years ago in quantities, the prices of which I have not advanced one cent.

FURNITURE.

Then again a Dining Room Suite of Furniture, a Rocking Chair, Arm Chair, or a Small Chair for the youngster. Linoleum for the floors, or a Congoleum Rug will save lots of work, as well as being attractive in appearance. It will also prevent, whoever washes up the floors, from getting their hands full of silvers, as so often happens.

PAINTS & VARNISHES.

I also carry an extensive line of Paints, Varnishes, and Stains, all of which add to the cheerful appearance of the home—both at this and any other season.

Also many other articles too numerous to enumerate on this occasion.
Again thanking you for past favors, and in anticipation of future business, I am,

Yours very truly,

FRED ODLIN

home when this is allowed to their stock run out why not com-pell them to tether them the same as in the summer.

SUCCESS OF LOAN.

The success of the last Victory Loan came as a surprise to many people those responsible for its dotation. In all the circumstances $300,000,000 was a modest sum to ask the real necessities of the case more probably called for $500,000,000. Doubtless it was considered better to have an under-subscription of the higher demand. In the result the loan was subscribed more than twice over, the remarkable total of close upon seven hundred millions being subscribed.

Taken in conjunction with previous loans, the sum which the Canadian people have been able to lend their government is a revelation. In previous loans the fact that the income from the investment would be free from taxation was presumed to lend an added attractiveness. In the last loan this feature was absent. The inference to be drawn is that the financial resources of the Canadian people are greater than was thought possible. But it may also be inferred that investors have preferred a safe, gilt-edged investment just now to more remunerative and more risky venturing of their capital.

Canada Shipping
Cattle to Hawaii

The first shipment of cattle from Canada to the Hawaiian Islands left Vancouver Saturday morning for San Francisco, where it will reach the S.S.
Tartar for Kailash, Island of Maui.
The shipment consisted of 18 purebred Holsteins and two pure-bred Jersey, and is composed of selected animals of the finest breeding and showing type from the leading herds of the province of British Columbia.

Woman Murdered
In Medicine Hat

As a result of a deplorable shooting affair which took place in Medicine Hat last Friday evening, Mrs. W. D.
Hawke, of that city, died at the hospital the following morning.

According to evidence taken at the inquest it would appear that an unknown man entered the home of deceased and demanded money. The frightened woman gave up all the money she had—amounting to $300.
This did not satisfy the assailant, who then shot Mrs. Hawke in the face and then through the stomach. As the man is said to have been at the house the previous day, witnesses claimed they could identify him. So far the murderer has not been arrested.

Donates French Wood To Dominion Gov't

Comte de Franceville, owner of Dominion wood, has presented the site, desired as a memorial to commemorate the gallant capture, to the Canadian people, according to Gen. Hughes, of the Canadian Engineers, who is in charge of the creation of memorials in France and Belgium.

Gen. Hughes, who has just returned from the continent, states also that he is assured that the Belgian government is preparing to present the three sites chosen, including in some small manner that the nation is grateful for Canada's sacrifices in the war. Full arrangements have been completed for the purchase of the three remaining sites in France.

CHRONICLES OF CANADA.

Among the most popular books in the Open Shelf Library of the Department of Extension of the University of Alberta are the volumes in the "Chronicles of Canada" series. This series consists of "thirty-two" timely-written narratives for popular reading designed to set forth, in historic continuity the principal events and movements in Canada, from the earliest explorers to the railway builders. The whole is divided into no periods, each created by a group of from two to six volumes. The volumes are small and the price clear so that they are easy to handle and to read.

The volumes may be borrowed from the Department by anyone in the province, on payment of postage.

As anticipated, all seven ministers in the Druzy government were re-elected by acclamation. Little public interest was manifested in the nomination, which were regarded as mere matters of form.

Why You Should Deal at Home!

Because by so doing you are helping to build up your own town. Every dollar you spend in your own town helps to build up your own Schools, Churches, Roads, Sidewalks, Sewers, Waterworks, etc. The money you send out of town helps to build up some other place, and increase the value of some other man's property instead of your own.
